The Necessary Bread Affinity Group from New York states that nuclear warfare is the ultimate form of genocide and I say let us not be polite, nuclear warfare will be the ultimate ejaculation for Haig, Reagan and the Bohemian Grove Brothers. We can spout off the millions, billions and trillions that have been spent on military hardware and what may be spent. We can more than adequately point out what human needs services are being plundered. Statistics are indeed mind boggling and nuclear war is unfathomable to many of us. Again, we form loose coalitions, the uneasy alliances between homosexuals and heterosexuals, between white and non-white, between gentile and jew, between the reproductive rights organizations, and christian institutions. As we stand here today in outrage, in our vigorous effort to demonstrate that we do not want a nuclear holocaust, as we state our beliefs in our rights as humans to a decent life.

without the fear of awesome destruction. I have to ask who wants who to survive? We attempt to form a strong front in reaction to the fact that human life on this planet hangs precariously. For many of us our lives hang precariously daily because of who we are. This town is called the gay mecca of the world, yet if you are queer in this town you can get killed. We must examine what it is in our own lives our lives may increasingly daily

That has allowed a small group of demonic and deranged white men to have this incredible power, to have brought us to this dangerous place. Halting the arms race is much more than Russia and the United States signing a piece of paper. Native Americans can tell you about the United States signing pieces of paper. Halting the arms race requires committing our efforts to stopping that industry of greed and bigotry which leads to violent oppression of people who are not the white elite ruling class.

Who wants who to survive?
We are here today to say that limited survival is not the question.
We are not going to waste our time nor deceive ourselves with building a concrete hole in the backyard.
We are here today to say and to hopefully truly believe that we want everyone to survive and that total survival includes lesbians, gay men, women, people of color. We cannot be committed in a limited way if we want unlimited survival. We must take purposeful care with our lives, with the lives of animals, with the life of our earth. It is like a garden that needs daily tending and watering. We haven't been taking very good care of our garden. Yes, the nuclear nightmare is an insanity of the grossest magnitude but we will only cure it by recognizing it's beginning in our own bigotry.
